FINANCES and MARKETS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(Wall Street.)

—Until the closing hour, the most conspicuous feature of today's stock market was its relative dullness. Trading was altogether professional, with a moderate upward trend after the irregular opening.

In the last sixty minutes, the list developed sudden weakness, which not only completely obliterated previous early gains, but scored some severe losses. Chief among these were the Canadian Pacific, in the railroad group, and United States Steel among the leading industrials. Canadian Pacific fell from its top price of 187 1/2 to 181 1/2, closing at 182 1/2.

United States Steel, which early in the day showed a gain of almost a point at 86 1/2, fell to 84 and closed at mere fraction higher.

The Harrimans, Atchison, Great Northern, New York Central and Erie substituted gains of a point or more by losses of as much. Baldwin Locomotive and Crucible Steel were materially lower, as were Westinghouse and other shares of the same class.

Total sales amounted to 825,000 shares.

General news of the day embraced reports from Chicago and other important railroad centers, showing an increase of tonnage, Canadian products especially taxing carrying capacity.

Bonds were steady during the greater part of the session, but weakened with stocks. Total shares, par value, amounted to $5,735,000; United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEW TEMPE NORMAL BAND MAKES A HIT

At assembly yesterday morning and at the Inter-Normal football game yesterday afternoon the new band of the Tempe Normal school gave short concerts and the class of their music was far above what might be expected from a musical club on its first appearance in public. The new band proved a big drawing card for the football game after the excellent concert in assembly and a crowd of students that filled the new grand stand on the athletic field heard the concert during the contest.

The band members wore their new uniforms and presented a fine appearance as they stood in rank before the grand stand playing their first piece of the afternoon. Later they filed into the stands, and from their prominent position filled in the dull moments with their lively music.

Mrs. Lillian Williams is the instructor of the band. Fourteen members were out yesterday and in future concerts from seventeen to twenty pieces will be had.

ROADS IMPROVED.

Practically all of the county roads between Tempe and the base line, three miles south, were gone over with the drag yesterday and the day before, with the result that they are in much better shape than they have been for months. Within the city limits the grader was at work, too, and similar results have been obtained.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Maximum and minimum weather temperatures were recorded as follows for the week ending Sunday, at the bureau of entomology laboratory:

Date	Max.	Min.
Nov. 1	85	45
Nov. 2	84	46
Nov. 3	86	48
Nov. 4	86	50
Nov. 5	83	50

came was an advance of 5 cents to 25 cents.

About the only important influence that tended to lift the wheat market was a notice of some European demand at Omaha for shipments by way of the Gulf of Mexico.

Corn weakened owing to bearish forecasts of the government crop report. A sag in the oats market came about chiefly from sympathy with corn. Eastern demand was only fair.

NO DEVELOPMENTS.

Despite the active work of the officers and those personally interested, no developments came to light yesterday in the cases of the several robberies that have been made in Tempe within the past week. The office of the police and the county officers in Phoenix will be kept, per chance the fellows who got away with the suits and overcoats from the clothing shop will attempt to sell them.

Mesa News Notes

PAINFUL INJURY

In an endeavor to ascertain the nature, extent, and cause of injuries inflicted upon a certain popular pharmacist in this town, difficulties were met with, which necessarily make their chronicling rather difficult. After a lengthy effort, resulting in sounds suggestive of anything but gratitude for the presentation of what seemed to be particularly apropos condolences, it appeared that the gentleman in question was speaking of his hand. On being asked to make a short statement, he said that he felt that that part of the fore-limb which (according to Webster) in man, apes, monkeys, and pharmacists, is attached to the lower extremity of the forearm and is adapted to grasping, was not the member that ever could have been his hand under any circumstances, and, in his present condition, his sentiment toward it was that of positive dislike. He went on to say that why this misfortune should have come upon him, he did not know; that he had always led an exemplary life. Yet it had had its compensations; his injury had been a revelation to him of human nature. At the end he admitted that he should not have put his hand in that electric fan.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"The Wolf-Man," presented at the Majestic tonight, is a brilliant drama providing a particularly fitting role for the charming Billie West. As the grand-daughter of the aged chemist, she delivers one of the most striking portrayals ever presented on a motion picture screen. The mysterious theft of a valuable formula for producing the glaze on pottery; the slain body of the inventor found in the ruins of his laboratory wrecked by an explosion; and the bravery and cleverness of the girl who solves the double mystery and brings the criminal to justice, are the main ideas in this absorbing and compelling Mutual Masterpiece.

Any dissatisfaction regarding the delivery of The Republican to subscribers in Mesa City will be given careful and prompt attention if the complaint is left or phoned to Everybody's Drug Store, Mesa.—Adv.

VISITOR FROM PENNSYLVANIA

Miss Virginia Kyle, of Reedsburg, Pennsylvania, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Dickson. Miss Kyle is a former school mate of Mrs. Dickson, they having been intimate throughout their college days at Oberlin, of which university both are graduates. She is on her way home after an extended trip on the coast, including the big fair at San Francisco.

MARRIED IN WISCONSIN

Miss Marion Hall, who spent the summer with her brother H. M. Hall, has returned to her home in Wisconsin. Hers, however, differed from the ordinary return from a visit. Miss Hall was met at Milwaukee by her fiancé, O. H. Halbach, who conducted her to the parsonage of the First Baptist church of that city, where they were united in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Halbach will make their home at Plymouth, Wisconsin, where the groom is engaged in business and where the bride had taught school for the past three years.

USED LADIES' WHEELS in fine shape, for sale at Mohrad's Cycles, Mesa.—(Adv.) 11-15

NEW ARRIVAL

Last Saturday night a young man arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Todd. He is rather a small fellow, weighing probably about 110-120 pounds. However, he was made welcome and put to bed in time to get a good night's rest and be ready for Sunday school.

WONDER WHY?

In commenting upon the Union Jubilee Services held in Mesa Sunday evening in celebration of the first anniversary of the drying up of the State of Arizona, the Mesa Tribune makes the interesting observation, eulogistic of the speech of Robt. S. Fisher on temperance, that Mr. Fisher's lecture was "interspersed with a number of antidotes, which pleased the audience." This calls to remembrance the fact that John Gough, the noted temperance advocate of earlier days, used to carry with him, on his lecture tours, a confirmed drunkard, whom he exhibited as the "horrible example." Now, it would seem, the same lessons is imparted by more up-to-date methods.
